Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Mary Jo Stangle's dedication to service to the South Dakota Army National Guard has made her a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Mary Jo has devoted over 26 years of her life to the service of this state and country as a Supply Technician to the Director of Logistics and the United States Property & Fiscal Office; and,

Whereas, Her loyalty and dedication to the tasks at hand have made her a valuable asset to the overall Logistical Operations for the South Dakota Army National Guard; and,

Whereas, Mary Jo continues to give of herself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Mary Jo Stangle for over 26 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 21, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family and friends in wishing her well in her retirement and thanking her for her service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
